

October 5, 2017

Every day, Unifor members are becoming more engaged in workplace campaigns around contract negotiations and in their communities – fighting for social justice for all!

 WHAT'S HOT

Bell clerical workers in Ontario and Quebec marked the first day of negotiations by wearing Unifor red, rallying together and distributing information leaflets.

READ MORE

 TAKE ACTION

Support CAMI workers on Friday, October 6 – express your solidarity in person at the rally or online by social media!

READ MORE

Unifor members joined hundreds of other activists across Canada to commemorate the first annual National Day of Honour and Awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls (MMIWG).

READ MORE

Knowledge is power was the theme of the 2017 Women's Conference, but it was also the key message Unifor women took home after three days of learning and activism.

READ MORE

For the first time in Unifor's history, activists from every region of the country participated in a national political action conference.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Medical Laboratory Assistants and Medical Laboratory Technologists, represented by Unifor Local 2458 began strike action on October 2, 2017.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Did you miss the NAFTA rally in Ottawa on September 22? Don't fret - check out Unifor's new video capturing the event.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Unifor has members in more than 20 different economic sectors – read all about them in our new sector profiles.

READ MORE

Unifor

205 Placer Court, Toronto ON M2H 3H9

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org