

October 12, 2017

This week, Unifor is fighting contracting out at the bargaining table and in the streets, reaching out to non-union workers and learning more about who our members are and what they do.

WHAT'S HOT

Unifor opened an organizing office in Alliston, Ontario, creating a strong presence in the community.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Canadians shouldn't have to choose between paying their rent and getting the prescription drugs they need. Sign this petition.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

The Nova Scotia government has bowed to pressure from unions over its wrongheaded labour legislation Bill 148.

READ MORE

The multi-lingual television channel OMNI is contracting out its Chinese news broadcasts – to a competitor.

READ MORE

Unifor urges the government to speak out against duties leveled against Canadian aerospace manufacturers that will have serious consequences for jobs.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor is standing up for displaced food and beverage workers after the Parq Casino contracted out dozens of good jobs to a non-union firm.

READ MORE

Joint labour rally in support of striking lab workers in Windsor.

READ MORE

There is a challenging set of negotiations up ahead at the Irving shipyard in Halifax, but Unifor MWF 1 members are ready.

READ MORE

CAMI becomes the posterchild for what is wrong with NAFTA.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor engaged in an equity audit over nine months, learn about our successes and challenges – in these compelling findings.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Proudly Unifor

Products and Services
Directory

Produced by Unifor's Research Department
Updated as of August 2017

Check out the new Proudly Unifor products and services directory to learn what members make and how to better support Unifor members in your area and across the country!

READ MORE

Unifor

205 Placer Court, Toronto ON M2H 3H9

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org