

October 19, 2017

This week, join the NAFTA actions on Friday, find out the history behind Persons Day and what it means today and read all about bargaining settlements won right across the union.

 WHAT'S HOT

Montrealers marched 15k in support of a $15 minimum wage.

READ MORE

 TAKE ACTION

On October 20, take part in #ABetterNAFTA rally near you or share Unifor's message on Facebook and Twitter!

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

NS workers rally against anti-labour Liberals outside the annual general meeting.

READ MORE

Unifor members in the rail sector go to Ottawa to lobby against work surveillance – it's about rights.

READ MORE

Ontario's proposed ban on mandatory high heels at work to help tackle sexist dress codes.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Local 88 members at GM CAMI ratify new contract as trade fight continues.

READ MORE

A new tentative agreement was reached at Brink's Canada, covering more than 1,000 members in BC and Ontario.

READ MORE

Unifor calls on government to appoint a mediator in the DJ Composites 10-month lock-out.

READ MORE

Aerospace locals ratify a new agreement with MacDonald, Dettwiler and Associates.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

October 18 is Persons Day, commemorating the day where women were recognized as 'persons' under the law in 1929.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Unifor released a report on the forestry sector highlighting the opportunities and challenges facing Canada's third largest export industry.

READ MORE

Unifor

205 Placer Court, Toronto ON M2H 3H9

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org