

February 15, 2018

For Unifor members, Valentine's Day also means expressing solidarity with others. This week, we're showcasing the work of Black activists, revisiting our past and imagining our future.

 WHAT'S HOT

Members attend national actions on Valentine's Day to commemorate missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls.

READ MORE

 TAKE ACTION

Did you know that Unifor publishes newsletters related to various issues and sectors of the union? Sign up.

READ MORE

Quebec Director hosts tour with members to talk NAFTA, pulp and paper bargaining and the provincial election.

READ MORE

Open letter to labour council and federations of labour representatives regarding the CLC disaffiliation.

READ MORE

Local union leaders and activists in Northern Ontario come out in large numbers to the annual meeting.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes the next step towards a $15 minimum wage in B.C.

READ MORE

Union and community members show love and solidarity for Tim Hortons workers in Ontario.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Nfld Labour Board fails once again to take action on D-J Composites lock-out.

READ MORE

Members at Jazz Aviation ratify a new contract, with increases in wages and pensions.

READ MORE

Strong wage and benefit improvements in new contract for Kitimat municipal workers.

READ MORE

Members at Wajax in Montreal locked-out over concessions.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Each week, Unifor is profiling Black activists who are making the union, their workplaces and communities better.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Look back on the early song that motivated Unifor activists to form our strong union – from coast to coast to coast.

READ MORE

Unifor

205 Placer Court, Toronto ON M2H 3H9

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org