

March 22, 2018

Unifor members and leaders continue to take bold action and secure important victories for all workers and their communities on the local, national, and even international stage.

 WHAT'S HOT

Unifor pushes for international gender equity with a delegation of fierce women leaders at the United Nations.

READ MORE

 TAKE ACTION

Act with FairPlay Canada and join Unifor to stop the commercial theft that puts 1000s of media jobs at risk.

READ MORE

We're taking a stand against the newest U.S. tariffs that threaten pulp and paper mill jobs across Canada.

READ MORE

Members contributed to an important plan that will expand Metro Vancouver's transportation system and grow jobs.

READ MORE

First round of bargaining for new members of Unifor, hotel workers with Local 7575, begins.

READ MORE

Unifor participated in the World Social Forum in Brazil, joining others in advancing international social justice.

READ MORE

Manitoba Premier Pallister continual bungling of public services and Crown corporations impacts Hydro.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Hotel workers at the Delta in Regina vote for a new agreement with wage increase and improved benefits.

READ MORE

After little progress with a conciliator Nova Scotia health care workers prepare to take strike vote.

READ MORE

New energy members in Alberta ratify first contract, recognizing Unifor and achieving significant wage increases.

READ MORE

Bus drivers in Bowmanville, Ontario were forced to strike after an impasse over unpaid work among other issues

READ MORE

Thunder Bay health care workers are on the verge of striking because of scheduling issues and low wages.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Northern Ontario members rallied to raise minimum staffing standards to improve long-term care and work conditions.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Occupational Cancer FIGHTING BACK MAKES A DIFFERENCE

You can stop the spread of cancer-causing agents in the workplace and elsewhere. Learn how in this booklet.

READ MORE

Unifor

205 Placer Court, Toronto ON M2H 3H9

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org