

April 12, 2018

From walking with community members impacted by Alzheimer's to walking the picket lines, Unifor members are moving forward one step at a time.

 WHAT'S HOT

U.S. tariffs are poised to kill more than 1,500 Canadian jobs. Watch this video to learn why Unifor is fighting back.

READ MORE

 TAKE ACTION

Bob White memorial teams are walking for Alzheimer's across Canada and Unifor locals are registering - you can help.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor aerospace delegation is set to lobby MPs next week to secure Canada's advantage in the industry.

READ MORE

April 10 marked Equal Pay Day, and while there are more steps toward gender justice, there are signs of hope too.

READ MORE

Hospital staff across Ontario take action to demand respect and show support for the tri-union bargaining campaign.

READ MORE

Unifor advisory panel met to discuss the equity audit report recommendations and how to build a more inclusive union

READ MORE

A Rush NAFTA deal agreed in principle is at workers peril.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Without a contract for over three months, Moncton Honda workers voted for strike action after negotiations stalled.

READ MORE

Aerospace workers locked out by D-J Composites 16 months ago, voted 97 per cent against the company's latest offer.

READ MORE

Windsor casino workers are staying strong on the picket line and the employer will get back to the bargaining table.

READ MORE

Unifor began negotiating a pulp and paper pattern agreement in Montreal, focusing on wages, job security, and more.

READ MORE

Port Arthur Health Centre workers in Thunder Bay are on the picket line over precarious work and inadequate wages.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Canada's climate change policy is varied and not always accessible. Learn more with our helpful introduction.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

If one of us is mistreated, all of us are. Read our statement about harassment which includes what we can do about it.

READ MORE

Unifor

205 Placer Court, Toronto ON M2H 3H9

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org